EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Theodore Naccarella on February 12, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel Claim 2.

Claim 3, line 1: after "the method of claim" delete "2" and insert -1--.

Claim 1, line 18: before the word "said", insert ---only---.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not provide for, nor suggests providing for a system which builds an XML document for handling a particular Java class object, however the XML document is not created with the Java object already within the document, then inserting only the requested Java object into the XML document, no other objects are inserted with the requested Java object, then transferring the XML document with the embedded Java object to the requesting computing entity which then provides the first computing entity the Java object. The essential functionality of the allowable invention is found in Figures 2 and 3, wherein the resource is built to hold the particular Java class object (shown as `java.lang.String`) to send to the requestor. The XML document is explained in the specification (p. 8, lines 6-16), and the prior art does not provide for inserting only the requested Java object into the XML document. For these reasons, in conjunction with the other limitations of the independent claims, puts this case in condition for allowance.

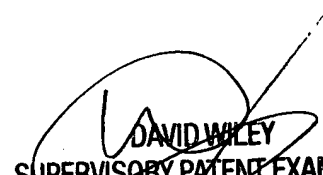

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
